Vehicle Pursuit Update

The pursuit of the stolen vehicle that the Hartland Police Department was involved with on April 14, 2021, occurred for a distance of approximately 24 miles. The suspect vehicle caused two traffic accidents by striking a vehicle in the Village of Pewaukee and striking another vehicle in the City of Waukesha. There were no injuries sustained during this pursuit.

The Hartland Police Department was able to identify the driver involved in the vehicle pursuit as a male juvenile from the City of Milwaukee. The Milwaukee Police Department was requested to take the juvenile into custody. The Milwaukee Police Department arrested the juvenile and turned him over to the Hartland Police Department.

The Hartland Police Department referred the following felony charges to the Waukesha County District Attorney's Office on behalf of the male juvenile driver:

- Operating a Motor Vehicle without Owner's Consent, contrary to state statute 943.23 (b).
- 2nd Degree Recklessly Endangering Safety, contrary to state statute 941.30 (2).
- Knowingly Fleeing an Officer, contrary to state statute 346.04 (3).

The male juvenile was turned over to the Waukesha County Juvenile Center Secure Detention Facility.

This incident remains under investigation by the Hartland Police Department.
